Mr. Dulles referred to a letter from [redacted] suggesting that [redacted] be invited to come here and the DCI approved.

25X1

Mr. Wisner referred briefly to an article in the Post, again bringing up the mythical Russian Colonel who was said to be versed in Russian atomic matters. According to the Post, this man is now in Washington. A diligent search had failed to uncover any indication of official cognizance.

25X1

Mr. Wolf handed to the DCI Mr. Becker's memorandum for the record relating to support for OPC [redacted]. After making some corrections, the DCI directed Mr. Becker to have this memorandum redone as revised, after which the DCI himself would issue a brief directive covering these points.
